

Domain Registration Agreement

Apheus purchases and registers domains using GoDaddy, which is an accredited registrar with ICANN. We are acting as a third party to secure and service domains for our customers and are bound by GoDaddy's Resale Practices.

All Apheus domain customers acknowledge and accept each of the following terms and conditions:

- Apheus is not acting as a registrar.
- Apheus will provide complete, accurate, and current data for each registrant to be added to the registry in accordance with ICANN requirements for inclusion in the WHOIS database.
- Apheus agrees to provide our customers with adequate customer support, and to maintain contact with them regarding the communications of changes in the information they provided as part of the domain name registration process.
- Apheus will provide corrected or updated registration information to GoDaddy within five (5) business days.
- Apheus will obtain customer acceptance of this Agreement and will retain evidence for a period of not less than three (3) years.
- Apheus will retain copies of communications with its domain customers and must provide that information to GoDaddy upon request.

As a result, all domains purchased through Apheus on behalf of our customers are bound by the terms and conditions set forth in the GoDaddy Domain Registration Agreement available here:
